PROF. SUHAS JOSHI

Director, IIT Indore

Firstly, I would like to extend hearty congratulations to the 10th passing out batch of IIT Indore. I hope you had wonderful stay in the Institute over the last few years. Our students have gone out of the Institute and established themselves in every field. The list keeps getting longer every year. I have no doubt that you will be a part of this rich legacy of the Institute.

As you step into the outside world, please be assured that your well-being and success in life are always on our mind. We will always be proud of your achievements.

Therefore, please go ahead and do your best, and do keep in touch with your alma mater.

Wishing you all the success in your future endeavours.

PROF. ANAND PAREY

Dean, Alumni and Corporate Relations, IIT Indore

Dear Class of 2022,

I extend a sincere congratulations and best of luck to the Class of 2022. While your days as a student have come to an end, your connection to IIT Indore lasts for a lifetime. Take advantage of the opportunities provided by our global alumni network – leverage it and contribute to it.

In the coming years, I urge that you not forget your alma mater, professors, and fellows. I encourage you to not only give back to the institute, but also keep us updated on the many achievements you will experience in your careers and personal lives. We will always take great pride in your achievements.

Take care and keep in touch,
Congratulations once again!

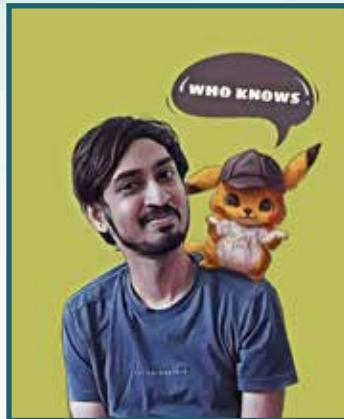

Editor's Note

It gives us great pleasure to present the first Yearbook of IIT Indore. There were many shortcomings along the way, and we tried our best to overcome them. This endeavour would not have been possible without the help of the Alumni Cell team, Shrevesh, GSCOA, Pradeep Agarwal, Joint Registrar of Alumni and Corporate Relations, Prof. Anand Parey, Dean of Alumni and Corporate Relations, and Prof. Suhas Joshi, Director.

We hope to release a yearbook for every batch henceforth, so that all passing-out students of the Indian Institute of Technology, Indore have words to describe and pictures to paint their memories.

ABOUT:

In the utter chaos of the universe, I am a group of atoms that are together for a short time! Hey there, I am Adarsh. I love to create things. I admire the idea of learning and exploring new things because when you combine one into another, it can create incredible results.

Q1. What will you miss the most after graduating?

Gold Friends, Free time to try new things, discussions and side-hustles.

Q2. If you had the power to implement a change in college, what would it be?

By creating a platform where people can leverage things beyond college scope.

All the best for the future, dude. Keep in touch. -Danyal Shahid Shamsi

Had a great time working on club projects with you. Learned a lot. Thanks for everything. All the best for your future! -Logashree

The silent killer Adarsh bhai. Bro you are good friend and roommate. All the best dude -Jagandeep Singh

ABOUT:

I grew up in Faridkot, Punjab. I like to read books and play badminton(though I am not very good at it). The time I spent on campus was so amazing that I wish I had more time to spend there.

Q1. What will you miss the most after graduating?

I am gonna miss roaming around campus with friends and all the fun we had. All those late night conversations and memories are forever etched in my heart.

Q2. If you had the power to implement a change in college, what would it be?

I would definitely reopen Zippy.

ABOUT:

My friends say that I'm very quirky and a jolly person who can light up mood of anyone, and I believe them as I get influenced very easily. I hate car/bus journey. I love food and I appreciate good food by letting you know throughout the day.

Q1. What will you miss the most after graduating?

Peaceful and long night walks.

Q2. If you had the power to implement a change in college, what would it be?

I would allow sitting near fountain.

I wanna taste those Yummy, Delicious, Tasty and undeniably Palatable dishes you make... Kab invite kar rhi hai? -Ruchir Mehta

Thanks for always being there in my low times. Though we didn't spend much time together, we know everything abt each other. Thank you so much for boosting up my confidence during last days -Rapolu Pulakitha

To one of the most dramatic, quirky and coolest people I've ever met in college. From being first roommates to one of the closest friends to graduate with we really saw it all together. I would never be able to keep up with her dancing skills. Also she could win MasterChef with her sense of taste! And yes I finally got into skincare because of you lol. Wish you all best wishes in life!! -Ishika Bhosale couldn't have had a wilder human and better cook as roommate. thank you for never letting me have a meal in peace because you just have to list all things wrong in it. you've somehow found a way to convince me for anything and everything and it's crazy (still can't believe I did THAT lol) -Shruti Singh

Thanks for being there as a friend for me, Hanu. You have a golden heart and an infectious smile. You are beautiful inside and out. Always be the same. Lots of Love!! and one more, soya thoda kham khaana 😊.-

ABOUT:

I remember watching the movie '3 Idiots' dozens of times and had always dreamt, that my college life would be like that. It turned out to be much more fantastic and full of fun. I made hundreds of life-long connections and thousands of unforgettable memories. My college life has taught me everything I need, to become what I want to be. Stay tuned! Always remember, "If it scares you, it might be a good thing to try. Say yes to every opportunity, as you never know what's waiting for you at the other end unless you try it".

Q1. What will you miss the most after graduating?

I'll miss my friends. I'll miss those days of masti, those dance parties in hostel rooms, those karaoke breaks, those moments of personal talks, those lunch-times in mess after lunch is over, those chit-chats at Juicilicious, those long night walks that used to feel way shorter. I'll miss those serious talks with Kalpesh, Adarsh and Danyal which were always full of insights and motivation. Without the support of all my friends, I would be nowhere. They filled colours on my sketched canvas.

Q2. If you had the power to implement a change in college, what would it be?

I would change the academic curriculum by replacing the courses like EVS, Psychology, Bio, etc, with monthly or bi-monthly 1-2 hr workshops conducted by college professors themselves. Also, I would introduce courses/platforms to spread awareness about managing money, personal finance, and entrepreneurship to set us apart from any other ordinary student.

Yes, My name is 'Simple'

ABOUT:

I was resident of Devi Ahilya HOR (believe me I had to clear that out to somebody who only knew my name) and a member of Dramatics club (more like a wildcard entry but yeah!) and most of all, now a Graduate.

Q1. What will you miss the most after graduating?

The late night walks , the random panchayat of 613 and most of all the people who became so much more than just friends.

Q2. If you had the power to implement a change in college, what would it be?

There should be a caddy after every 5 minutes.

The best BTP partner one could ever get. -Hemant Tharad

Simple tu bilkul simple nhi hai re but stay the same bro and keep helping poors like me 😊 or me atleast forever. Badle me I'll make chai for you <3-Saumya Bharti

You are not simple that we all know but your friendship is very precious which I like to cherish and keep it forever.-Pushpalata Priyadarshi

Hi Simple, You have been a very supportive and good friend. Just keep rising and shining. All the best for your future.-Shashikant Gupta

Aur kitne example se prove karu ki tu meri hypothesis ko sahi manle?-Priyam Bajpai

To the most cheerful and cool senior, we never have interacted much but you are a different vibe and I love that about you. Stay the same. Aapki mentee ki best friend-Anadita Prasad

Dear Saviour, I've lost count of how many times you have saved my life. Thank you for all the gyaan, adventure trips, free therapy, cute earings & half lemonsoda you shared with me ;P-Rani

The challenges in our lives are there to strengthen our convictions. They are not there to run us over.

ABOUT:

I am Boga shiva pavan. I am from Electrical branch. My hometown is Hyderabad. Before my B.tech life I used to be less interactive with people and friends. Also I don't even know how to use a smart phone before. I have learnt many kind of things here. I came to meet all kinds of friends and communicate with them. Most of time I will spend watching some kind of movies or series. I am an anime lover. I did watched quite number of series. I enjoy watching them a lot every time. As of sports I like playing badminton. I realized that where ever you go if you are able to make friends with whom u can share feelings, u will not feel any kind of discomfort. I enjoy dancing in DJ nights. I also feel that maintaining the relationships the same way all the time may not possible. Even if the relation with someone at present is exciting and good , it may fade away slowly or may turn bad. Of course it depends on the people. Effort should be from both the sides in order to maintain the relation. Its really not easy to put the feelings into words accurately . A quote from me during a Yes or No undecisive situation is "Even if u believe in yourself or choices of others u trust , if u still feel the outcome is a mystery, just make a decision in such a way that u will regret the least when the result is a failure".

Q1. What will you miss the most after graduating?

My memories with friends.

Q2. If you had the power to implement a change in college, what would it be?

I will try to improve the Mess food quality and implement good varieties of food.

Yo mate, remember the '4+'? 😊 Keep suggesting me nice animes as you always do. Be in touch & all the best.-DIGVIJAY NIKAM

ABOUT:

A hard hitting fitness freak, gym maniac and sports enthusiast.
Come and consult me for any fitness and sports related advice. Mera vishwas karo maine bahut gym kiya hai.

Q1. What will you miss the most after graduating?

My friends, which made IITI my home away from home.

Q2. If you had the power to implement a change in college, what would it be?

Proper budget allocation for gymkhana and especially cult council, kyuki abhi jitna paisa cultural clubs ko milta hai woh literally uth ke mooh mein jeera jitna hai.

All the best for the future, dude. Keep in touch. -Danyal Shahid Shamsi

ABOUT:

Came to college as an eighteen year old boy with lot of expectations and no plans. Initially, I got scared after seeing the competition in academics, soon got used to it. Tried every field (sports, cultural and technical). Learnt how to handle defeats, and much more. After four years of engineering, I'm ready to go out, explore the world and face challenges without any fear.

Q1. What will you miss the most after graduating?

Amazing people of IIT Indore, vast green campus, playing volleyball every evening in hope that we'll go to inter-IIT and playing badminton whole night.

Q2. If you had the power to implement a change in college, what would it be?

ABOUT:

I am Sakshi Mandloi and have recently graduated as an Electrical Engineer obviously from IIT Indore with 4 FTE job offers from Wipro, Housing.com, Arcesium and DE Shaw. The interesting fact is all of them are in software domain, yeah guys I just mean to say EE sucks. I have studied in online mode for 4 sems, and offline mode for 3 sems, yeah guys I didn't study the last sem, it was meant for absolute fun.

Q1. What will you miss the most after graduating?

The hostel room and the fun we had together, the dances and the fights, the inhouse cricket and the movie nights, the long roads and the long walks, the endless conversations and the peaceful silences, the "Not allowed" terraces and the night outs, the 2AM cravings and the 2AM basketball, the glorious sunrises and the morning walks, the unplanned adventures and the beautiful waterfalls, and a lot more, the space is insufficient to mention. But yeah, I will truly miss my home away from home and especially the most beautiful and lovely friends-cum-family.

Q2. If you had the power to implement a change in college, what would it be?

Curriculum really needs an upgrade and interdisciplinary minors should be introduced...blah blah blah... Skip to the good part... The students should be free to explore all the amazing and peaceful terraces especially the auditorium one. The POD should finally be constructed for once and all. The IIT Indore should be renamed as IIT Indore wildlife sanctuary with the varied species of snakes, wild boars, wolfs and the leopard.

Cheers to beautiful times!-Kunika Biyani

ABOUT:

Bubbly, efficient, EE hater. Like most, I've had the best and the worst times both at the same place. I was not the best, but I was good enough, and that's all that mattered. I never knew what I really wanted, I hadn't figured it out then, and even after dozens of internships, research, publications, top-notch job offer, I still haven't.

Q1. What will you miss the most after graduating?

The deep conversations under the starry sky which would bring the world together.

Q2. If you had the power to implement a change in college, what would it be?

Organize an annual Caddy Grand Prix xD

All the best for the future, dude. Keep in touch. -Danyal Shahid Shamsi

The greatest compliment I can pay you is that you will be the first person that I'll turn to whenever I feel like talking to a friend. -Arnav Joshi

I'll start with a little secret I've probably never shared: you've always been the guy I look up to, since like the very beginning. I've found a great friend, mentor, love guru(?☺) in you and a bond that I'll cherish forever. I wish you every success in your future endeavours. And mark my words, I'll call you on one Sunday morning to pitch my billion dollar startup idea and you'll be compelled to come along ☺-Amogh Dixit

When is this due again cz it's almost the deadline! 😊

Q1. What will you miss the most after graduating?

I did not miss the college when I left but when my peeps were dancing on the stage without me, broke my heart!! I miss vibing with my boys all night with boombox ❤️

Q2. If you had the power to implement a change in college, what would it be?

Academic rules: A person who failed in more than one subject due to some health or family issues is not given any chance of clearing it in next year or next semester. He might be capable of clearing all his/her backlogs in one semester but cannot attempt it due to their academic standards. Due to one semester a super senior of mine stayed till 6 years. He's so frustrated of our rules as he was given only 2 subjects per semester in his 5th year so he had to wait till 6th year for one course. I am just writing behalf of him.

Jaada kuch nahi bhai, bs aise hi khush rehna and dance krte rehna. Thanks for your company during the second wave of COVID. Those are some of the best moments of my college life.-Manish Tirkey

ABOUT:

From a guy who came as a guy who could spend all day sitting in his room and left as one who looks forward to hanging out with friends all day, I took my time, but I've come a long way. College was easy though, like riding a bicycle, except times when the road was on fire 😂.

Q1. What will you miss the most after graduating?

From planning to go to city for days, to walking kilometres daily in the campus to get to different eateries everyday, not a single of our day-to-day activities in college were "normal", and I will miss every bit of these when I do the same things normally.

Q2. If you had the power to implement a change in college, what would it be?

If it was 4 years back, maybe many things. But now, everything seems lovely the way it is.

Q1. What will you miss the most after graduating?

The perfect social life !! Entire days and nights spent hanging out with friends doing absolutely nothing and still having the best time <33

Q2. If you had the power to implement a change in college, what would it be?

Since it's always more exciting to have things experienced rather than simply understood, I would focus on prioritizing a more interactive education system based on practical learning.

College life has made me better than before. Thinking about career, improvising in different fields, giving time for career as well as relations, socialising with people, adjusting with people.

Q1. What will you miss the most after graduating?

The best thing I got from the college life are the friends with whom we made thousands of memories. I will miss the late night walk, gossiping and the unwanted talks before the exam with my girls ,leg pulling of my lambu which was my favourite thing when i am bored , my advisor for every confusing time,my prime++ gang dil, neeru, himu, pp, sarle, mohit my all time entertainment channel , masti , late night singing ,tapri time,asking me name of girls.The late night walks, outings with Harsha jagruti,the food this guys makes and teasing me by talking in Telugu. I will miss my idiot teaching spanish in library ,never leave a single moment to tease me but neither leave me alone in difficulties, cheer me up, small fights, teaching me in every sem, bets over small topics, and tried to keep me happy every time.

Q1. What will you miss the most after graduating?

Where do I start. Of course the amazing friends I've made here is at the top. But if I had to get to the specifics it's probably the moments where your friends barge into your room at the most random times and y'all end up doing dumb stuff together.

Q2. If you had the power to implement a change in college, what would it be?

Wouldn't change a damn thing. It always feels like IITI had the perfect amount of imperfection that made it a wonderful place to be.

Q1. What will you miss the most after graduating?

I never felt bored in college, as the hostels had something in them that never left me alone, we call them friends that I will miss the most. Although there are many good and stupid things we used to do e.g. the permanent after-dinner tea of Mohit Dhaba, Badminton at night, tennis in the very morning, Evening at Tapri, meme war, all mobile games and binge-watch with friends, Pittu near Abhinandan Bhavan and sitting there on grass for the whole night, sleeping in the hall and all the time spent in Yaari Dosti.

Getting into IIT was a dream come true. Now, I look back at this amazing journey and am grateful to everything it has taught me—hard work, perseverance and patience. Those moments of endless assignments, exams, projects, interspersed with in- and out-of-campus adventures, roadtrips, long gaming sessions, and so much more all along with incredible friends have contributed to my growth

Q1. What will you miss the most after graduating?

I will really miss the long walks around campus, especially to the dhabas, those moments filled with mischief, fun and inside jokes; the long gaming sessions and sitting around in each other's rooms; the tension during exam season and the creative ways we found to help each other and so many little moments that are hard to list down but will live with me forever.

ABOUT:

I am a 6 feet 1 inch short guy, with disability of smashing the shuttle, build robotics club with drudgery, a by default Civil Engineer, nailed computer science with my drum sticks.

Q1. What will you miss the most after graduating?

All those crazy days and nights with all my friends. The freedom to wake-up and sleep anytime. The run chase of my Rs 40 breakfast, and the last minute meal coupon purchases. The dining hall with long queues, with dishes in hand and asking a friend ?may I get into the middle?? Those daily potatoes, with bitching the caterers and eating with full joy with my friends cum siblings. Getting faster to attend our lectures sometimes a ?rush?, and sometimes a ?join now? button. I?ll miss those plenty of worthless chatters during labs and classes. Will miss my extreme legendary power to complete the syllabus a night before exam. Will miss all those room cricket, Gpls, crazy night-out stuffs. I?ll miss all my profs indebtedness. I?ll miss my badminton court, playing for hours, and waiting for my turn again after 2 love all. Will miss all my friends who were my family, those memories are ineffable.

Q2. If you had the power to implement a change in college, what would it be?

Q1. What will you miss the most after graduating?

Things I miss: varied breaks between courses, always having something to be working on, all my friends being in the same place all day, wider range of choice (going to be late, doing homework at the last minute, etc.) There were a lot of great social groups outside of my academic areas that I was able to join, where I made some of the best friends I've ever had. I miss those people, and I miss the lower level of pressure. I miss my free time being TOTALLY mine. I miss being 22.

Q2. If you had the power to implement a change in college, what would it be?

I think there are enough ground or nets for other games except football and cricket. I want to make at least one-one ground for each(here one ground means separate & perfect with cricket pitch or football net).

Bonjour Guys, this is Archit here, I can't believe how quickly time passes because now the actual hard work starts, I guess (someone told me this). What a crazy ride these four years were, I laughed, I cried, but still it was fun. Thanks to all my bros for all those limitless movie and Halke-Fulke nights (and my movie recommendations are worst, trust me)! These years have taught me a lot about life as well. Never change, if you're lucky enough to be different. Being good to people is a wonderful legacy to leave behind. You're always going to know more in the future than you know now. And finally, you don't always get all the things in the bag that you selected from the menu in the delivery service that is life. You get what you get. See you all at the 10 year reunion!

Q1. What will you miss the most after graduating?

Friends that turned from complete strangers into souvenir of those remarkable silly talks, forming this enduring collage of memory.

Q2. If you had the power to implement a change in college, what would it be?

I guess the mess food, because in the bank account of diet, good food is an investment, which was non-existent at IITI.

Writing about myself does not come easy. Mostly because my life still happens to be a bit of a mess. You'd think years of channeling your life in a particular direction would lead you to a destination or at the very least, set you on course for one. I thought so too. Where do I see myself in the next 5 years? I don't know. What would I end up doing eventually? I don't know. Do I have a plan? I don't know. Your guess

Q1. What will you miss the most after graduating?

ABOUT:

My takeaway from college - I had the privilege to work and interact with different sets of individuals for club activities, organize events, and compete in inter-collegiate competitions and elections. The lessons I learnt from them set me on a path to discover what I want to do in the future and why.

Q1. What will you miss the most after graduating?

I had the freedom to spend my time with the individuals I wanted to be with, and on the things that I wanted to do. Without anybody policing what I should or should not do with my time.

Q2. If you had the power to implement a change in college, what would it be?

More courses in Economics, History and Psychology should be offered. These courses are more relevant for students, to develop an understanding of how things work in the real world. Also, students should not be forced to mandatorily take 4-5 courses of their discipline each semester, until and unless they wish to do so themselves. As the skills and knowledge gained in these are rarely used by students after college and have little to no bearing on their job placement.

ABOUT:

Born in 2nd April 2000 in a small town of Gujarat in a family of 4 members. I have grown from zero to something during my last 4 years at IITI. I love experimenting with things that help me improve and interacting with new people. During my college journey, I have got through 10+ PORs, the major one was Cultural Head of Fluxus - IIT Indore 2020 under which I successfully managed to conduct 25+ cultural events and from where I started exploring non-tech fields. I started the journey of building my startup during my college days only. We were a group of 6 people who wanted to innovate something that can help businesses to grow online and launched the Tapri IITians Ki store at the IITI campus. I will always be available for my batchmates. Unforgettable 4 years?

It's all about the journey and the people who you meet. It's indeed beautiful.

ABOUT:

A dreamer and a traveler. Love meeting knew people. Would love to explore the corporate world after pursuing MBA and start an enterprise of my own one day.

Q1. What will you miss the most after graduating?

Those nightouts and the amazing, super interesting and super talented people. my homies will be missed the most

Q2. If you had the power to implement a change in college, what would it be?

I would have introduced south indian food and used the open air theatre more actively. Bringing in more companies in the core sector would have been the main goal.

Cheers to beautiful times!-Kunika Biyani

I like the way you live each moment of your life in present, welcoming each challenge so happily ki challenge aane se pehle bhi do baar sochta hai. You are so open hearted, full of joy and adventurous.-Ruchir Mehta

I am glad that I met you. To those thousands of fun moments, the endless conversations about what not, the solo night outs, everything with you has been just beautiful. I am out of words to write about you.-Sakshi Mandloi

Bro event krwana hai T_T, kuch badiya sa idea de - Arey ye krwale muskan maza ayega', 'Princee yaaar badminton/TT/cricket/insert any sport khelte hai, kal pkka aati'. It has been so greattt to find a girl with similar uchal-kuud interests, felt less of a misfit :') (laptop pe emojis nhi hai, whatsapp pe bhejti ruk)-Muskan

Thanks for always being there as a friend for me, Ms. Adventurous. I'll always remember and cherish the conversations we had and the moments we spent together. You're the bravest person I know! I wish I was more like you. You have a bright infectious smile, always have it on.-Harshitha Kolukuluru

Thanks so much for making me play cricket in our rooms and giving me company with TT & badminton. You make me smile everytime I see you. Thanks for all the positive vibes. Enjoy your life like you always do!-

Logashree

Will always remember the group trips and adventures we shared. The late night games. All the best ☘. Keep smiling like you always do. -Jagandeep Singh

Thank you for making these four years wonderful for me. Every moment I spent with you was beautiful. I will always be grateful for meeting you. Be the same adorable child you are, forever. Love you-Errabelli Siri Chandana

As I've said before- If you don't have a Princee, get one. Unfortunately, you'll have to bear my 3 am overthinking for life. Sorry not sorry. -Sonakshi

Bahut ghumakkad, fast, dhakad, adventurous type ki hai tu. Raat ko nind se jagaakar ghumne ka bolo hmesha taiyar rhti hai; kafi shaant type ki hai; exploring; Simple; overall tere group ki girls ki trh hi hai; Will miss you and the gang. Aur haan kya patapat goals krti thi 😊-Arvind Mehta

ABOUT:

I'm a candid individual who has and values integrity. Granted, I do have a degree of modesty, but I like to consistently set firm goals in both career and fitness aspects, and am constantly analysing to see how far along I am and what I can do to achieve the goals. I am currently working as a Data Analyst. I'm always proactive about seeking new opportunities to develop and grow in my role. My most valuable trait is that I'm a people person who enjoys meeting new individuals and learning about their lives.

Q1. What will you miss the most after graduating?

Exhilarating gossips with close friends: I can surmise that I am gonna miss the hilarious conversations and naughty talks I momentarily had with them. It's also nice having these people to work along with during projects. I will lose the privilege of participating in the multitude of cultural and sports opportunities this college offers to us vividly

Q2. If you had the power to implement a change in college, what would it be?

As a fitness lover, I tend to have a concern towards coming up to terms with a healthy nutrition that goes by avoiding all types of junk food which is quite ubiquitous. A balanced diet can help students increase their energy levels and performance in their academic activities. My recommendations are as follows: 1. Reduce on-campus access to, and availability of, calorie-dense and nutritionally empty foods. 2. Develop and promote University-wide food guidelines for IIT Indore facilities and sponsored events

The best thing that happened is that we dragged each other through the lockdown given the situation was not good at each of our homes, without giving up. I wish you achieve all the success that you dream of.-

ABOUT:

Delhite. Electronics Engineer and Technocrat. Bit Aggressive, enthusiastic and determined towards my goals. Small town boy with big dreams. Future entrepreneur. Love to research and play tennis.

Q1. What will you miss the most after graduating?

The first thing I will remember is being a student of this college. But mostly I will miss my friends and PhD seniors. I am going to miss evening coffee at my mentor's (i.e., Sanjay Sihag) hostel room, his scolding and his consistent guidance. He was my unsaid guardian. I will definitely be going to miss the endless discussion and fights with Ashutosh sir along with that I will miss the memorable late-night talks with him. I will miss eating food all together in dining hall and pampering of Santosh sir in the mess and will never forget all the birthday celebrations we had in the carbon building and all the cake fights. I will miss volleyball and tennis. I will definitely miss my dearest friend of IIT Indore Sonu and more probably his chicken dish which he used to make on my special demand. I will miss all the fun and mischievous activities which we had done together. I will always remember my days in the campus which I have spent with my junior cum bestie Megha. Our walks and fights over little things and the way she irritates me with pinching, silly questions and weird explanations and many more but I will always value and cherish the trust and care we are having for each other.

You are my best friend. You are the one with whom I can share everything without any hesitation and the bond we are sharing its very special. I haven't met any guy with so many ambitions and I know you will fulfill all your goals very soon 😊. You are helpful towards everyone no matter who they are .To mohit ji 😊

Megha

I met him in the campus very first day in my Quarantine period where we were very unknown to each others but now we are not only best friends also brothers for forever. He is simply a true gentleman with pure heart .He is not only extra ordinary talented in education but full of many multi talents like sportsman,fitness freak,foodie,good cook,gentle behaviour, matured etc.I spent 6 months with him in this campus, which ended very quickly. He always guided me like my big brother in every field and also stand by my side in my bad or good conditions. Simply, I got a true man in this IIT Indore who knows me very well . I wish he will achieve more success in his life and make feel proud always . Miss you always bro 😊 all the best for your next bright journey ahead.I love you meri jaan ❤️ -Sonu jaishwal

Q1. What will you miss the most after graduating?

1.My beloved friends Satyarth, Anshuman,Abhinav,Sushil,Anshul(South Delhi) I will miss these people. 2.I will miss those sleepless nights, nights with friends, Night Canteen, Workshop building, traveling from pod to workshop by Green vehicle and last but not the least traveling to Indore from college by M-19 bus.

Q2. If you had the power to implement a change in college, what would it be?

1.I would introduce a separate mail id for Alumnus. 2.I would bring more food outlets in the campus. 3.I would introduce the placement system like old iits(placement season should be in november and december month only)

We both elapsd quarantine together when we came first time in college . Thanks for motivating me.You were true senior .May happiness be always there for you in your future. Best wishes for your future. -Pushp Ranjan

Tu jyada talented n samjh khud ko😊, meri blessing h😊 jo tera project bahot acha hua. Ow pta nhi kya hota tere project ka.😊 And dont go for so many meanings of my lines. I'm very genuine and just talk straight about whatever I wish to say.😊 it's just been very short time that we met but i share a very good bond and comfort zone with u. Thanks for giving that zone. It doesn't matter where we are, but u will be tired of me always😊. Lots of hate for u.😊-Anuradha Kumari

One of the most joyful person I know on campus and a man full of heart :-Priyanshu Singh

A lot of things we like in you, the way you are talking to people, your sense of humor, the way you are helping people. More than this, the acceptance you got from the people in very short period of time is really surprising. We all are missing you in iiti, we know that you are so ambitious, all the best for your career anoop.-

Q1. What will you miss the most after graduating?

Although there are lots of things to be missed in my IIT but when you ask THE MOST then I will say I miss the most after my course is the moments with my some lab mates, unit mates and class mates. That moment with my lab mates when we go for a tea after sir had gone in evening. That moment with my unit mates when we come together at night or Sunday in our common area and discuss our things with each other. That moment with my class mates when we go for outing ?? in weekends. These are only the drop from an ocean of joy in my IIT life. One more thing which I like the most is the indore kaa Mausam, I love it.

ABOUT:

Hey, IITians!! Rishabh Gupta (RG) here, MS mechanical. You may or may not know who I am, but my entire MS (Research) course has been a rich experience for me, not just in terms of obtaining skills but also in terms of learning a lot more about techniques, research, work attitudes, and interpersonal interactions. I am grateful to Dr. Pavan Kumar Kankar, my supervisor, and Dr. Ankur Miglani for their motivating assistance. Thank you for giving me the opportunity to work at IIT Indore's System Dynamics Lab (SDL) and for providing important ideas to help me better and take responsibility for my work. Their genuine and personal interest in me, their professional demeanor, and their direction regarding my job and project have enabled me to work with a clear head and an open heart. To me, they were all excellent instructors, mentors, and role models, and I learned a lot from them all. But, without my colleagues, my life as an M.S (Research) student at IIT Indore would not have been the same. Everyday activities, politically incorrect jokes, informal fikas that may go on for hours, and, probably most significantly, our frequent after-works help to make our division the greatest at IIT Indore. Lastly, but not least, I'd like to state: Take bold steps in the direction of your ambitions. Live the life you've always wanted.? ? R.G??

Q1. What will you miss the most after graduating?

I will miss many things about IIT Indore. Like teapost's awful tea, Noor's overrated rolls, Aladdin's tasteless panner, and my morning daily poha and chai with my friends at Village Tapri. Aside from that, the things I miss the most are our everyday activities; politically incorrect jokes; informal fikas that can go on for hours; and, most importantly, our frequent after-work at late night labs and Indore nightouts.

Q2. If you had the power to implement a change in college, what would it be?

IIT Indore's research and rigorous working environment should be changed. It should be to the students' advantage, not against them.

Q1. What will you miss the most after graduating?

I'll miss the beautiful campus. Long late night walks, the beautiful library building, my batch mates, the view from the hostel balcony. It's been such a delight.

Q2. If you had the power to implement a change in college, what would it be?

I'd really like the option of food getting delivered at the hostel (may be at some extra charge) because during sick times it gets tough to walk to the mess building.

ANONYMOUS ANSWERS

What is a secret from your college life you can't tell anyone but would like people to know?

- ◆ Can't believe I am saying this but I have a big crush on Aditi.
 - ◆ College boundary walls should be a bit tall especially at some places. You cannot keep students inside the campus in the COVID period with these walls.
 - ◆ Doing some responsible work after getting high, such as joining an online class with friends or experimenting with labmates
 - ◆ Friends show almost got me backlog in a course
 - ◆ From how much height have you ever peed (ours was the top of the tallest building in college).
 - ◆ Had a crush on a PhD student (RD);
- ◆ Had crush on almost every TA of physics lab in first year 😊.
 - ◆ Humne bina koi kaand kiye guards ko picche bhagaya tha and poore mess me paani fela diya tha with that fire hose reel
 - ◆ I am Batman!
- ◆ I believe secrets should remain secrets, so I shall say "no comments" to this one and move on. :P
 - ◆ I broke a lot of college rules without anyone knowing. And well, that was the fun part as well.
 - ◆ I broke the Covid quarantine rules thrice. I stayed almost a week outside the campus in Indore for appearing in GATE and NET exams.
 - ◆ I cried for a few hours 2 days before leaving the campus
- ◆ I had a crush on a B.tech Electrical girl(she was 2nd yr when I was M.tech 2nd yr). She also knows it. Hope to see her after 10year reunion.
- ◆ I have stolen chocolates, ice-cream from La-fresco and daily needs.
- ◆ I jumped directly through the space between the stairs of carbon building at 2nd floor and landed on ground floor after breaking through the false ceiling. Still surprised how I got away only with injuries on my wrist and thigh and not break any bone.
- ◆ I loved dining at Tea Post and never paying. P.S. Room 315-C/311-E, CVR.
- ◆ If I was a bird, I know who I'd shit on.
- ◆ Itne kaand kr rakhe hai ki page hi chota padh jaayega
- ◆ Labs are not just for research work.
- ◆ Nachiket leaves his mouth and door both, open at night.
- ◆ On the DJ night of Dussehra I fell for a girl. I tried to approach her later, but she was too preoccupied with her research, so we were unable to develop a sound connection. I'm content with the few encounters and conversations I've had with her. She was, however, out of my league and sometimes I felt like it was just a discrete dynamics of unlikely alliance.
- ◆ Our Group has stolen tray of egg's from locked mess(want to know the procedure, please go and check cctv footage).
- ◆ Sabotaged someone's answer sheet once, fir usne batch top kr liya tha! Aise kaise?
 - ◆ The secret is that i once took the parked bicycle in front of my hostel and we friends ride it. But somehow i got that bicycle damaged and the next day i saw the owner of bicycle cursing the person who got his bicycle damaged. Its a big sorry from my side bro !
 - ◆ There were advisories given many times to everyone in the campus that leopard has been sighted and many safety precautions given. Still one night I decided to take walk through Health center-Kshipra-gate2 pathway. That was the scariest CR (campus round) I had as there was not a single person I could see outside that night, but I did it anyway. That was thrilling!!!
 - ◆ When first leopard was caught, I was way too deep into the forest area [70:30] near that spot (cage) the night earlier, heard noises in the bushes. So I Bounced. It was quite an escapade.
- ◆ When noone was allowed to come to the campus during corona, I came in the campus by jumping and stayed in the hostel for a week. Even hostel staff didn't know.
- ◆ When tissue paper in the lab got out of supply, we used toilet paper instead stolen from ladies' washroom rather than buying new tissue paper rolls :)
